Dear Graduate,

I wish to congratulate you on the completion of your program, and to extend congratulations on behalf of Berklee's faculty, staff, administration, and Board of Trustees. We enjoyed the opportunity to celebrate with you, and hope you take the time to reflect on your accomplishments. We continue to be very proud of you and your achievements.

You and your classmates have successfully completed your studies during one of the most difficult years in Berklee's history, overcoming the disruption impacting many aspects of your lives. You came together to solve problems, support one another, and find new ways to continue to create and collaborate from across the globe. When we went remote just over a year ago, we challenged our community to improvise and innovate. Through your videos, recordings, and stories, it's clear that you have done just that.

I am looking forward to following your interesting lives as you venture forth. The world is in need of people committed to envisioning a more compassionate and just society. Your artistry, your creativity, and your determination will serve you well as you make your way.

As a member of the Berklee community, you join a global network of alumni who serve as ambassadors of the institution—trailblazers in music and beyond—and as global citizens with the power to make change. We look forward to following your career; please continue to share your professional and personal activities with us.

Serving as your president has been one of the great privileges of my life. As I, too, approach my next chapter, I will always remember the dedication, resilience, and creativity that you and your classmates have shown, and I am honored that you are the final graduating class of my Berklee presidency. I wish you all the best.

Respectfully,
Roger H. Brown
President, Berklee
